

DESTINATION DRIVE to KEENELAND, KY <https://keenelandconcours.com/>

You read the title and say, “why would I want to go there”? For those in-the-know, you already KNOW what’s there. For the rest of you, read on!

In addition to being a world-famous horse racing track, Keeneland is also the home of the annual Keeneland Concours, a first class PCA event on the level of Amelia Island and Pebble Beach Concours.

Located in the Horse Capital of the World, Keeneland is an internationally renowned racecourse and is the world’s largest and most prominent Thoroughbred auction house. It hosts world-class racing twice annually during its boutique Spring and Fall meetings. Owners, trainers, riders and fans from all over the world travel to Lexington each year to participate at Keeneland. Founded in 1936, Keeneland’s mission is to continually invest in the industry and to preserve the tradition of Thoroughbred racing. Considered one of America's most beautiful tracks, Keeneland is known for its well-designed and meticulous landscaping. The grounds consist of the paddock, a prep area where visitors can view horses up-close just before the race and a combination of dirt and turf racetracks.

For our purposes during Parade, judged cars begin to stage before 9:00 AM on Saturday. Most of the judged cars come in on Friday and do final car preparation in the pre-staging area. The actual show field and Paddock areas are finalized on Friday. Note there is no charge for entering the areas on Friday. If you go, use Ken Hold as a contact on Friday at 859-396-3502 or email at kendellhold@twc.com. On Saturday the best person to contact is Rick Music at 859-227-3106. Rick is the Bluegrass Region VP. He is also chair of the PCA BGS Hospitality Park at the Keeneland Concours.
